Ready Now To Extend Graduations U.S. 45 Over Tracks Highlight Calendar

A contract for carrying U.S. 45 over the Rock Island tracks east of Mokena instead of under them, has been let to Superior Construction Co., for approximately $450,000.

It was also reported that a contract probably will be let this month for the building of a cloverleaf that will give U.S. 45 a connection with I-80 in the vicinity of 183d St.

Some of the work is said to have been done when I-80 was built and it was reported that if the work is pushed it could be completed within six weeks.

Completion of the cloverleaf will be of benefit to area traffic that would make use of I-80. Access to I-80 in this area is now limited to Tinley Park and west of New Lenox.

Carrying U.S. 45 over the railroad right-of-way will eliminate the necessity for closing the road after heavy rains or snows. The present routing brings the highway under the tracks. Rains and snows block this subway at various times, necessitating long detours.

The new route will turn to the west about 183d St., then south to 191st St. where it will turn back to its present course, it was said.

Commencement activities highlight the week's calendar.

Lincoln-Way High School graduation ceremonies are tomorrow night, June 7. Last Monday afternoon was given over to the distribution of awards and scholarships to the outgoing seniors. The Honors Day program was held in the gymnasium and was attended by the student body and many parents.

New Lenox grade school graduation exercises will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 9, in Oakview School.

Eighth grade graduation will be held at Frankfort School at 2:30 Sunday.

Graduation at Mokena will be held at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at Willowcrest School.

Graduation at Arbury Hills School also is scheduled for 7:30 this Saturday night.

L-W Student To Get State Farmer Degree

Bill Yapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Yapp, New Lenox Township, and a member of the Lincoln-Way Future Farmers of America chapter, will receive the State Farmer Degree on June 13 at the State FFA Convention in Urbana.

The State Farmer Degree is the highest degree awarded by the Illinois FFA Organization. Only two percent of the state's 16,500 FFA members receive this award each year. Recipients are selected on the basis of their leadership and participation in FFA activities, school and community activities, and income and net worth resulting from their FFA programs.

Bill Yapp has been active for the past four years in various FFA activities. In his freshman year he received the Greenhand degree. The following year he was raised to Chapter farmer, along with receiving a section foundation award. This past year, Bill has served as treasurer of the Lincoln-Way Chapter. He also received several foundation awards, as well as being named Lincoln-Way's Chapter Star Farmer.

Bill's farming program has shown considerable growth since his freshman year when he had one beef feeder and six acres of wheat. His project presently consists of two beef feeders, two production cows, corn, oats, and alfalfa.

MOKENA GRADE SCHOOL band, led here by Director Perry Friedman, took part in the annual Memorial Day parade in honor of the American War dead.

Use New Voting System In Primary Next Tuesday

When Will County voters go to the polls in the primary election next Tuesday they will be confronted with a new system of voting but few contests on either ticket.

Instead of the paper ballot that one marked with a pencil the voter will punch out his selection. A card, placed in an IBM voting machine, is substituted for the paper ballot and a stylus takes the place of the pencil. A complete description of the new system of voting will be found on Page 3.

In next Tuesday's primary the Republicans and Democrats will nominate candidates for United States senator, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor of public accounts, state attorney general, clerk of the supreme court, clerk of the 3d District Appellate court, congress, delegates and alternates for the national presidential nominating convention, state representatives, representative committeemen and four county offices, state's attorney, recorder of deeds, county auditor and coroner.

The Democrats have no contests for the state offices but on the Republican ticket Robert A. Dwyer, candidate for lieutenant governor, and William J. Scott, former state treasurer and now a candidate for attorney general, are the only GOP candidates for state offices who are unopposed.

U.S. Senator Everett Dirksen has opposition in the person of Roy C. Johnson. Donald D. Carpentier, whose father had been secretary of state, is seeking that office and is opposed by Brian B. Duff. Three are running for the nomination for auditor, William C. Harris, Weslie W. "Wes" Olson and Terrel E. Clark, of Western Springs. The Republicans also have three running for clerk of the supreme court, Mrs. Earl Benjamin Searcy, Justin Taft and Louise Emerson.

The main bout is for governor. There are four candidates in the GOP race, John Henry Altorfer, Peoria industrialist; William G. Stratton, former governor; Richard B. Ogilvie, president of the Cook County Board and S. Thomas Sutton, a lawyer.

Observers say the race will be between Altorfer and Ogilvie. The winner will be opposed by Gov. Samuel Shapiro in November. Shapiro, who was lieutenant governor, became governor a few weeks ago when Kerner resigned to accept a job on the federal bench.

William G. Clark, who is presently the attorney general is the candidate who will be opposing Dirksen in the fall, as Dirksen is looked upon as a certainty to win the GOP nomination for U.S. senator. Paul Simon is seeking the lieutenant governorship; Michael Howlett is seeking re-election as state auditor and Francis S. Lorenz, who has been chairman of the department of public works and buildings is trying his luck for attorney general. Fanie Jones is the candidate for clerk of the supreme court.

In the county primary the Demos are running George E. Sangmeister, of Mokena, for re-election as state's attorney; William E. Smythe, for clerk of the circuit court; Stephen B. Luzbetak for recorder of deeds; Stanley B. Waznis for re-election as county auditor, and Dr. John K. Churchill (a chiropractor) for coroner.

The only contest for county office on the Republican ticket is for clerk of the circuit court. Sam H. Paul and Frank J. Burich. Paul is a resident of Troy township where he was town clerk from 1951 to 1957 and since then has served as supervisor. He has been a committeeman 20 years. Burich is a Lockport man and was an assistant supervisor there from 1959 to 1961 when he was elected a justice of the peace and served as such until the new law covering courts abolished the office.

The others running on the Republican county ticket are Louis Bertani, of Joliet, a member of the law firm of Krusemark and Bertani, who is seeking the nomination for state's attorney; Kenneth L. George, of Elwood seeking election as recorder of deeds, the office he now fills thru appointment; F. Berle Needham, of Mokena, seeking the nomination for county treasurer, and Willard G. Blood, seeking re-election as coroner, who is running on his record.

Needham, a retired official of the financial division of the Rock Island Lines, is an assistant supervisor from Frankfort Township and chairman of the county board's finance committee. He is now the business manager for the newly organized Junior college district.

In Frankfort, New Lenox, Green Garden, Manhattan, Monee, Peotone, Crete, Homer, Washington, Will, Wilton and Troy townships Leslie Arens is seeking re-election as congressman of the 17th Dist. on the Republican ticket. Lester A. Hawthorne is the Democratic candidate.

These townships are in the 41st state representative district and each party is running two candidates. This assures four nominations but in November someone will lose because only three may be elected to the general assembly. W. Robert Blair, of Park Forest, and William G. "Bill" Barr, Republicans, are seeking re-election, as is John J. Houlihan, on the Democratic ticket. The other candidate on the Demo ticket for state representative is Sammy Berk, whose term as circuit clerk expires this year.

The polls will be open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m.

IBM Voting System To Speed Returns For Will County

Will County will go electronic in next Tuesday's election.

With 191 precincts to get returns from the task of counting and tallying paper ballots has become a major problem. In many of the precincts the election judges have labored thruout the night and one into the next day to complete the count.

The staff at the office of County Clerk Clara Hartley Woodard, where the final returns must be made and the ballots turned in, has worked for 24 hours, sometimes longer.

To remedy this situation Mrs. Hartley has been talking with members of the county board for a couple of years, urging that some type of voting machine be substituted for the paper ballots.

Last year the supervisors purchased 1,051 Votamatics. The Votamatic is an IBM vote recorder, in which the voter inserts a card and punches out its choices with a stylus. The recorders weigh seven pounds and are about the size of a brief case.

County Clerk Woodard has put out demonstrators around the county so that voters have an opportunity to see how the device operates. Votamatics are now ready public inspection and trial in the area at the Mokena State Bank, the Frankfort State Bank, the New Lenox State Bank, the Lincoln-Way Savings & Loan at New Lenox and the First National Bank at Manhattan. They are also available at the First National Bank of Lockport and the Lockport Savings & Loan.

Using a high speed computer, the ballots will be tabulated at speeds of up to 1,000 ballot cards a minute regardless of the number of candidates and issues on the ballot. Clerk Woodard noted that this year the Democratic ballot will have 29 names on it and the Republican ballot will have 30, seeking nominations ranging from governor to precinct committeemen.

Here's how the IBM voting system works, Mrs. Woodard explained:

After a voter enters the polling place, he receives a ballot card with a numbered stub on it and an envelope. The envelope can be used for write-in ballots.

Inside the voting booth, the ballot card is inserted under the book-shaped ballot pages of the recorder. The voter records his selections by punching a hole in the card with a pen-like stylus. The stylus is attached to the unit.

As the voter turns each page of the ballot, additional voting issues and punching positions are exposed. Up to 235 voting positions are available on a single punched card.

The punching positions are directly opposite the ballot page and are indicated by arrows from the candidate's name and the "yes" and "no" choices in referendum issues if such are to be voted on. As each page is turned, the issues already voted upon and the holes already punched in the card are covered and others are exposed -- making it easy for the voter to concentrate on only a few issues at a time.

When he completes his ballot, the voter removes the ballot card and places the card in the write-in ballot envelope, which preserves the secrecy of his vote. The ballot is then deposited in the ballot box. The stub end is given to the voter. If he takes off from work to vote he thus has a receipt he can show that he really did.

If a voter spoils either the ballot card or envelope at any time during the voting, he simply returns the spoiled item to the polling place manager and receives a replacement.

After the polls are closed, the ballot cards are taken to the data processing center, where they are entered into a general purpose computer for automatic counting at high speeds. Either the Caterpillar Plant or the accounting office of Illinois Bell at Joliet will serve as the counting center. Both have high speed computers.

The public and the candidates should know the results by midnight, it was said, and probably before. It depends upon how quickly the judges complete their allotted chores, bundle up the cards in their proper boxes and deliver them to the counting center. The computer can count 1,000 cards (ballots) a minute.

Hold Funeral Services For E. P. Harrison

Edward P. Harrison, 62, late of 167th St. & 110th Ave., Orland Park, died Sunday, May 26, at Silver Cross Hospital, Joliet.

Mr. Harrison was born Aug. 12, 1905 at New Orleans, La., and had lived in this area for the past 17 years.

He is survived by one son Edward J. of the above address.

Removal was to Schmaedcke Funeral Chapel, 143rd & Southwest Hwy., Orland Park, where services were held Wednesday, May 29, at 10:00 a.m., with the Rev. John Berger of the Marley Baptist Church officiating.

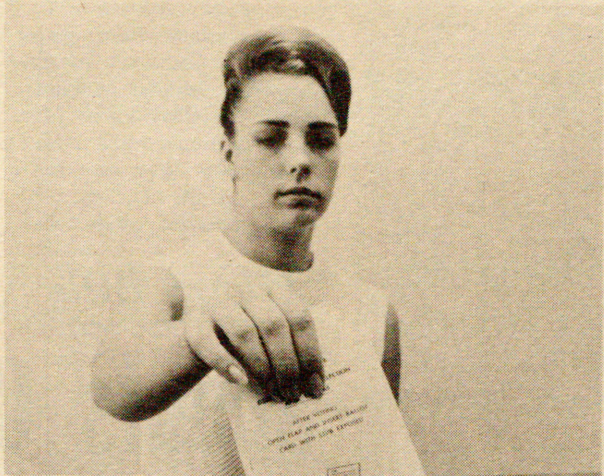

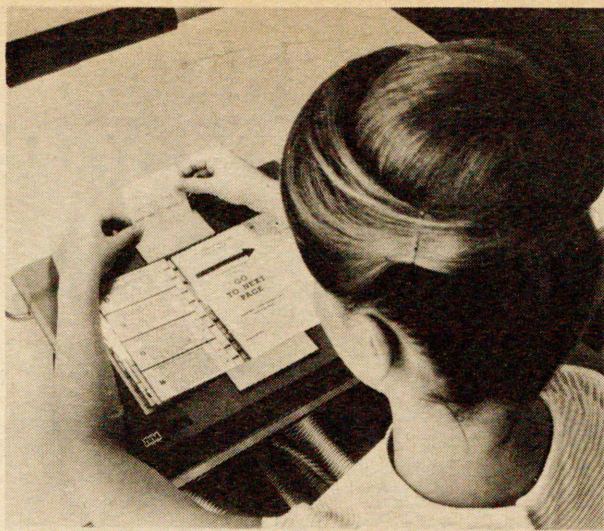

Interment was in Brooks Cemetery, Orland Twp.

Report Vandalism At Sandburg High

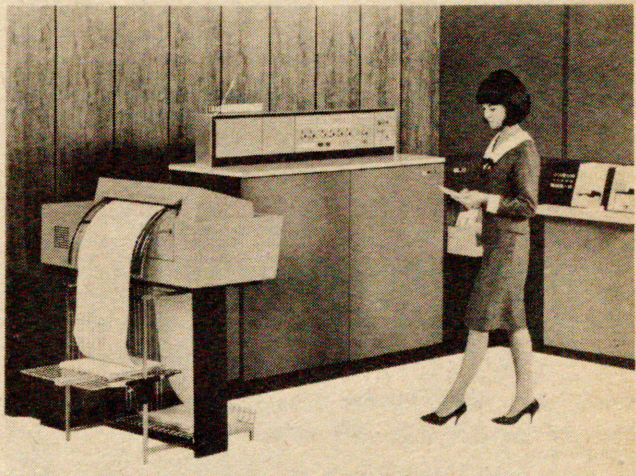

A letter to parents apprising them of a wave of vandalism that has caused considerable property damage at Carl Sandburg High School and that authorities have every reason to believe that gang war could break out, was sent out last week by Supt. W.O. Fisher.

Fisher invited all parents to attend a recessed meeting of the Distr. 230 board of education Monday (June 3) night in the Alonzo Stagg High School library. The parents were urged to bring their sons with them.

It was reported that only about 30 parents attended the meeting and 20 students. Police officials from Orland Park, Palos Park and Palos Heights were also in attendance.

PHOTOS SHOW how the IBM voting system works in a typical election. Upper left: a voter inserts the specially-designed card in the vote recorder. Upper right: to record her selections, the voter uses a pen-like stylus to punch holes in the ballot card. Lower left: she places card, now inside envelope, into ballot box. Lower right: after the polls close, the cards are taken to a data processing center where they are entered directly into general purpose data processing equipment for high-speed counting and printing of election returns.

500 Attend Dedication Of Orland Junior High

Last Sunday's dedication and open house at the Orland junior high school was attended by more than 500 persons. The Orland band and chorus performed under the direction of Wesley Warner and were thought by most people to be the highlight of the program.

Opinions regarding the new building ranged from satisfaction to enthusiastic superlatives praising the aesthetic and functional design of the building. Norbert Jerling, superintendent of schools, welcomed and introduced approximately twenty guests of honor who were present. Robert P. Hanrahan, Cook County superintendent of schools, praised the local initiative of the community, indicating that the Orland junior high ranked with the finest buildings in the county.

President of the board, Harry C. Kaper, in his theme, building a new school, pointed out that the building of the school was a team effort and was only possible because of public support. He thanked previous board members who had served on the board during the planning and construction of the building, and reiterated the district's dedication to quality education.

John Moore accepted the building for the State of Illinois and turned the keys over to Lee Harbison, building chairman of the board. Mr. Harbison pointed out the complete adaptability of the building and that another gym and class wing are planned to be added within the five-year building program. The design of the school provides for movement of students between periods for a modular type of scheduling. Doors, and the noise they could cause, are excluded wherever possible. The Orland junior high school combines beauty, economy, and function.

Mr. Harbison concluded his remarks by inviting all to visit the building. The Parent - Teacher Association served punch and cookies as the public toured the building.

Following the awards the Cadettes served refreshments to the guests and the boys. Thanks heaps Mrs. Markowski and Mrs. Diercoff for your helpful girls.

They were informed that the procedure now in practice is: First offense, a warning by the dog warden; second offense, a warning by the dog warden and Mr. Tate; the third offense a summons to appear in court and a $25 fine plus court costs.

If you wish to report any stray or loose dogs please contact Walter Mueller at 479-5316. He will take care of complaints.

The group was also given a name and telephone number to contact if you wish to determine the total amount of personal property taxes due to date. The gentleman to contact is Mr. Clarence Lipman at the County Court House, the telephone number is (815) 726-4483.

If you already know the amount the check may be sent directly to Mrs. Lipman at the Will County Court House in Joliet, Ill.

Frankfort's Planning Program Wins Praise

Frankfort's program for development has won the praise of the community development consultant for the Illinois Department of Economic Development, Nolan B. Jones, who paid a recent visit to Frankfort.

While there Jones met with Mayor Glenn Warning and other leaders and in a letter received by the mayor this week wrote that he was quite "impressed by the sophistication of the program for the economic development you have formulated for Frankfort."

"I believe I can truthfully say your community is a leader in Illinois among other communities of your population, in your overall community program," he went on. "You are making preparations in every area to carry out a progressive program; the business district renewal, zoning, planning, new home construction, properly buffered industrial sites, services and total awareness of community improvement."

"I am eager to have your industrial fact survey on file for it is always helpful to present a fully prepared community to industrial prospects..."

The village board is now seeking means to extend its water and sewer services. A new well is being drilled at the northwest corner of Community Park, and it would be easy to extend water mains from there along U.S. 45. Sewers should also be extended in that area, the trustees agree. The only thing lacking to carry on such a program, it was pointed out, is funds.

Village officials hope to interest present and future industrial establishments in coming in on such a program in a realistic fashion. They point out that drilling a well to serve an industry and to build a proper septic field is quite expensive today and hope to convince the operators that such money should be applied to bringing water and sewer service to their doors.

Trustee John Topp reported at Monday night's meeting that a break in a culvert passing under U.S. 30 about two blocks west of U.S. 45 is responsible for tons of surface water finding its way into the sanitary sewer system.

Dye was put into the surface water south of the Lincoln Highway but instead of it coming out on the other side of the road it went into the sewer and was discharged at the treatment plant. It looks like it might be a major operation, officials decided, and Village Engineer Robert Hamilton is to be asked for an opinion.

In reply to a letter from Police Chief Amos Massey and some property owners living along U.S. 45 north of U.S. 30 asking that the speed limit be held to 50 mph or less, letters have come back from the Department of Public Works and Buildings. Another check on traffic has been made, the department letter stated, and no evidence found that would warrant a reduction in the speed limit, at this time.

Robert Huisenga, owner of the NuWay Disposal Co., came to the village board meeting Monday at the request of Mayor Warning to discuss general pick-up procedure, including that on the two semi-annual clean-up days when garrets and garages give up their debris.

The board told Huisenga that he was to be commended to the job he was doing.

There were some minor complaints voiced but on the whole the service was believed adequate. Huisenga said his equipment could not be used to carry long lengths of pipe, tree limbs or concrete and building material. On clean-up days pipe, tree limbs scrap lumber should be cut in short lengths, four or five feet, so it can be handled. Before the next clean-up day, which will be in October, Huisenga will send a letter to the board covering what the householders can do.

Graduate 345 At Sandburg Sunday

Three seniors will speak at Carl Sandburg High School's football field.

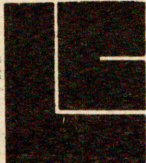

Corinne Kirby will give the main address and the welcome will be by Russell Novak. A farewell speech by Paula Ferrin concludes the student contributions.

Principal G. W. Davidson will present the class of 1968. There are 345 seniors this year, down from 475 last year. The difference is partially explained by the fact that Stagg High School, District 230's northern campus, is graduating its first senior class June 7. The Sandburg graduates will receive their diplomas from Supt. W. O. Fisher.

Others on the program are the Rev. Bruce Eaton Johnson, pastor of All Saints Lutheran Church, who will deliver the benediction and Invocation; and student council president Tracey Bernhardt who will lead the pledge of allegiance. Marshalls from the junior class are Martha Gay and Arvydas Valenta, juniors who have the highest scholastic rank so far in the class of 1969.

Siren Will Warn Of Approaching Tornado

A long steady wail of the fire siren for approximately three minutes will be a signal to New Lenox residents that a tornado has been sighted and heading their way. It could also mean that weather conditions are such that the possibility of a twist-being spawned over New Lenox is imminent.

This announcement coming from the New Lenox Civil Defense office, also lists some safety rules to remember:

Seek inside shelter, preferably in the corner of a basement -- the corner from which the storm is coming. Usually tornados come from the southwest.

Stay away from windows.

If there is no basement to the home take cover under heavy furniture in the center of the house.

Keep some windows open on the side away from the approaching tornado.

If driving a car and there is time and a road is running in the right direction, get away from the path of the tornado at a right angle. If there is no time, get out of the car and lie flat in a ditch or ravine. House trailers are quite vulnerable to strong wind.

Keep out of auditoriums, gymnasiums or other structures with wide-free-span roofs.

Tornados can occur at any hour, the Civil Defense spokesman said, but because of the conditions that create them, they occur most frequently between noon and midnight, with the greater percentage hitting between 4 and 6 p.m.

A tornado is a funnel-shaped cloud, spinning rapidly, and reaching for the earth from the base of a thundercloud. Close at hand a tornado sounds like a whole timetable of express trains traveling at terrific speed.

On an average the path of a tornado is a quarter of a mile or less in width and seldom more than 16 miles long but its destructive force is a fearsome thing. Tornados can level solid buildings, hurl houses, cars, trucks and box cars thru the air and turn twigs and straws into deadly missiles.

The New Lenox Civil Defense receives warnings from state and county police when a tornado has been sighted or indicated by radar. It is upon receipt of such warning or actual sighting of a tornado that the "Tornado Warning" signal will be sounded.

When persons in the area hear this warning they should take immediate safety precautions, the Civil Defense spokesman repeated. They should not call police or fire departments. Listen to Joliet radio stations for information about the storm.

Only call police if you sight a tornado.

A "tornado watch" means weather conditions are such that a tornado could develop and such message covers a large area. The siren will not be used to signal a "tornado watch," only a "tornado warning."

208 Get Diplomas At Stagg Friday

Music by the school band and choir will open and close the ceremonies. Marshalls, leading the class, are juniors Patricia Pechulis and Robert DeMent.

BOARD OF APPEALS OF ORLAND PARK,

ILLINOIS

Merrill Cooper,

Chairman

Published by GRAPHIC NEWSPAPERS June 6, 1968

ONE OF A SERIES OF MESSAGES FOR MILK AND OTHER DAIRY PRODUCTS PUBLISHED NATIONALLY

Olympic gymnast...Linda Metheny speaks out.

Gymnastics, like most Olympic events, requires a great deal of dedication. (Talk about being a dedicated athlete, Linda was the 1966 National AAU All-Around Champion, and a four gold-medal winner this year in the Pan American Games at Winnipeg!) True, the Olympic Games bring together athletes from around the world to compete. But even more important, the Games also try to bring the people of the world closer together through participation in a universal interest—sports. The very symbol of the Olympic Games, five linked rings, denotes the sporting friendship of the peoples of the earth, whatever their creed or color. As you probably know, the U.S. Olympic team is financed solely by your contributions. If you'd like to help the 1968 U.S. team, send your donation to:

U.S. Olympic Committee, Olympic House,
57 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10016

I was only 17 when I was on the 1964 U.S. Olympic team, and thanks partly to our team's manager, I've learned how to keep myself slim, and in top physical condition. It's no big secret, really: Plenty of rest, exercise, and well-balanced meals made up from the four basic food groups: 1) Meat, poultry, fish and eggs; 2) Vegetables and fruits; 3) Breads and cereals; 4) Milk and milk products. Each of these groups has certain nutrients that together comprise a well-balanced diet. The fourth basic food group, the milk group, should get special emphasis because some adults think that they've outgrown their need for it. Personally, I consider milk as necessary now as I did when I first entered my teen years. There are some things—like rest, exercise, and proper foods—we just never outgrow.

Cub scout pack No. 237 held their pack meeting on Friday evening, May 24 at the St. Anthony's Catholic church. Lee H. Gericke, cubmaster was in charge of the meeting. The opening was by den No. 2 with Mrs. Roy Robertson. It was announced that the pack sold 100 Sesqui-Expo tickets with the top seller Steve Griggs selling four books. Steve Anderson and Philip Ortel Jr. each sold one book. They each received a patch for their uniform and Steve Griggs received a two dollar voucher for each book he sold. The top selling den was the Webelos den selling 69 tickets. Ralph Bidne is in charge of the Webelos. This was our last pack meeting of the season. The next meeting will be in September. The boys will be notified of any summer activities and when den meetings will resume in the fall. Our new pack charter and registration cards were received. Mrs. Howard Bluth, president of the P.T.A. was introduced. She is the representative of our sponsor. The parent attendance award was won by the Webelos den. A surprise uniform inspection was held with the entire pack scoring very well. Another call for help was asked of fathers for publicity man and Webelos den assistant. It's surprising how many fathers will let "someone else do it."

The following awards were given: Ricky McCarter; wolf badge and gold arrow, Wendell Wilson; two silver arrows in the wolf rank, Walter Staton, bear badge; Robert McCarter; lion badge and gold arrow. Thank you certificates were awarded to Mrs. Henrietta Reynolds, Mrs. Earl Piepenbrink and Ed Nicholson for their past service to our pack.

Games were presented by den No. 1 with Mrs. Jack McCarter. The skit was presented by den No. 3 with Mrs. Earl Piepenbrink. Refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cake, coffee and cool aid were served by the Webelos den with Mr. Ralph Bidne assisted by mothers Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. Howard Bluth and Mrs. Lowell Zimmerman.

The boys who will be entering the third grade in the fall were invited to attend with their parents. These boys will be eligible to join the pack in September if we have enough den mothers. They are Darrell Arnold, Russel Griggs, Ronnie McCoy, Frank Wallace and Dennis Zimmerman.

Mrs. Phillip Nissen, the former Betty Lehman, was returning to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehman, when her auto husband is serving with the marines in Viet Nam.

Sp. 4 Bernie Hoogstra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Hoogstra, has been 25 days in the 6th Convalescing Hospital, Viet Nam. He was knocked down by a home made bomb thrown by a Viet Cong. Bernie was all right as of last report. He is a mechanic stationed in Qui Nhon.

3 Entries To Date For Mokena Queen

Three candidates are in the running for queen of the annual Fourth of July Festival sponsored by the Mokena Lions Club. There is still time for entries and those in charge are hopeful of a large field.

Those entered to date are: Pamela Strassenberg and Francine Mansan, of Arbury Hills, and Dorothy Omland, of Mokena. All three are students at Lincoln-Way High School. Miss Strassenberg and Miss Omland are juniors and Miss Mansan a sophomore.

Tickets are being sold and the purchasers may vote for the girl of their choice. First prize will be a $100 gift certificate. A $50 certificate is offered for second place and $25 certificates go to the third and fourth place finishers. The tickets are $1 each or six for $5.

The festival will run four days, July 4-5-6-7.

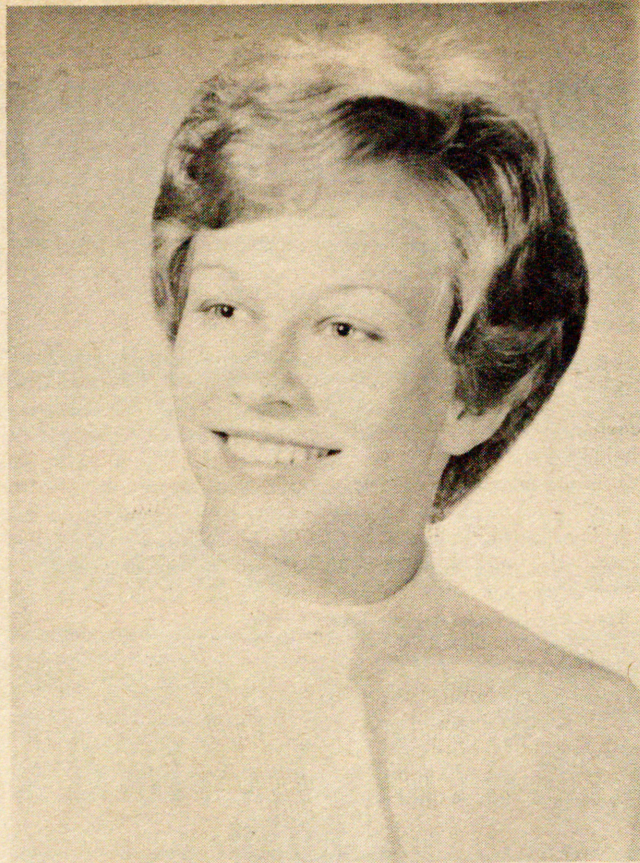

Gift Fence Just Fits

Mayor Melvin Doogan, who has been fortunate from time to time to get material, equipment and labor either free or at greatly reduced prices in getting the park system underway, asked a question at last week's board meeting.

"What is the distance along the railroad tracks bordering the Orland Park Hills park?" he asked. "The reason I am asking is that 300 feet of cyclone fence has been offered to the village."

A hasty check was made of maps. Three hundred feet of fence would be just fine, it was reported, as the length of the park land along the tracks is exactly 300 feet.

On a motion by Trustee Roger Franz, who is interested in getting ground ready for baseball field, the village board voted to spend $800 on grading and preparing tracts in the Hills park and the W.R. Schussler park.

JUDITH LYNN SCHROEDER — Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Schroeder, 14550 Woodland Ave., Orland Park, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Lynn to James Brasker, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Brasker of Covington, Ind.

Judith is a graduate of Carl Sandburg and received her B.A. degree from Drake University at Des Moines. She is presently working on her masters degree in social work at the University of Ia.

James is a graduate of Indiana State University and is also a student in the graduate school at University of Ia.

The wedding will take place on Sept. 14.

Sandburg Teacher Is Author Of Cook Book

A bright orange book, "People, Food, and Science" will live the CSHS's advanced cooking course next year. Home Economics teacher Mrs. Patricia Cote recently completed writing the text book which is published by Ginn and Company.

She had been chosen as one of the top three Home Economics teachers in the country to go to Cornell University in 1964. She received this honor because the Home Economics program at Sandburg is different from most in that it teaches the chemistry of foods. Mrs. Cote has incorporated this into her book in an attempt to revise the old methods of merely teaching the students how to cook.

It took two years to complete the book. She said it was beneficial to teach while writing because she was then able to relate what she wrote to her actual experiences in the classroom.

The book is 522 pages and the accompanying workbook is 150 pages. The workbook enables students to study at their own speed. The book is divided into, "The Significance of Food," "The Nature of Food," and "The Management of Food Resources."

The textbook has already been adopted by the state of Louisiana as a text for classes there. Mrs. Cote hopes that the book will eventually be used nation-wide in Home Economics classrooms.

Even considering her success, Mrs. Cote does not plan to write another book.

She would advise future writers to expect to sacrifice, meet deadlines, devote a considerable amount of time, work hard, and allow themselves enough time to complete the book.

Mrs. Cote felt that she had been rushed "to put it mildly" when she was writing the book. She said one must be able to "devote full time to do whatever you are going to do."

Several color photos and sketches by artist Wes Kemp relate to the text.

College Planning $12.5 Million Referendum

Moraine Valley Community College is seeking authority to issue $12.5 million in bonds and to add 2½¢ to the building fund levy. The election date has been set for Saturday, June 15, from 12 Noon to 7 p.m. The governing board of the college, given voter approval, will implement a ten-year plan to build, equip and staff a community college on an approved site in Palos Hills.

According to projections the college will have an enrollment of 1500 students in 1968, and 15,912 students taking courses to equal 9,669 full time students by 1968. Based on present state formulas, the facilities for these numbers are estimated to cost about $50 million.

To obtain state funds already appropriated and to apply for future money, the college must meet its share of the cost. The state of Illinois, under the Illinois Master Plan For Higher Education, will pay 75% of Orland For Airport In Green Garden Twp.

The Orland Park Village Board has joined with other municipalities of the southwest suburban area in recommending location of the third Chicagoland airport in Green Garden Township.

Such a location, the trustees believe, would be most beneficial to the area as a whole. All of the communities would benefit, they pointed out.

Green Garden is more or less flat land and has a small population (about 900 it is said) so there would be a minimum of displacement. It would also be faster and less costly to build an airport in Green Garden than in the lake, it was brought out.

Copies of the resolution adopted by the Orland Park Village Board are ordered sent to various governmental agencies and advisory groups which may have a voice or some influence in selection of the airport site.

It has been pointed out that the airlines will have the final say on the subject inasmuch as they are the ones who put up the money, not only to build an airport but they are the ones who keep it running thru payment of fees for use of the facilities.

ing fund levy is needed for fixed equipment and maintenance of these facilities.

The exact cost to the taxpayer is difficult to state since rates and valuations vary in the college district. Based on Illinois current tax rates and figures presented by financial consultants the approximate increase for a homeowner who paid $500 in real estate taxes in 1968 would be $10.53 for the bonds and $2.50 for the building fund levy increase. This, however, is only if all bonds were to be sold at once. The board, however, anticipates selling the bonds only as needed to coincide with the "Phasing" program. It must be noted, also, that the amount of bond payment would decrease from the original maximum as the indebtedness was retired each year.

Park Board Re-elects Officers

The Mokena park board has re-elected its officers for the coming year by unanimous vote. Charles Swanberg is president. Edwin Yunker, vice president; William H. Steen, secretary, and Arthur Omland, treasurer.

The district is planning a tennis program, with instructions to begin later this month. A tournament is slated for the latter part of July. The board will spend $250 to provide tennis instructions for a five-week period. Classes will be limited to 16 persons.

Swanberg was delegated to talk with Will Tuttle, electrical contractor, about plans for lighting the courts.

Repairs are needed on the backstop at the main baseball diamond in Mokena Community Park, it was reported, and six swing seats and a teeter-totter board have been purchased. A load of sand also was purchased to be used on the ball diamond.

The board also purchased a lawn and garden tractor. There were three firms who submitted bids, Yunker Implement, Cooper & Hostert, and Moss Equipment. Each submitted bids on 10 horsepower engines and on 12 h.p. engines. Yunker Implement was low bidder, with $788 for the 10 h. p. and $872 for the 12 horse engine; Moss Equipment, $965 for the 10 horse; and $1,025 for the 12; Cooper & Hostert, $1,250 for the lighter machine and $1,325 for the larger. The machine was purchased from Yunker for $872.

The treasurer's report shows that the balance on hand April 26 was $6,010.45 after payment of bills in the sum of $643.90. The bills brought up at the meeting May 27 totaled $1,829.44, of which $1,000 was due J. K. Laser for an audit. The bill for the auditing firm was held up until a check could be made as to why the audit report did not start with the beginning of the park district.

Milk On Must List

by Nancy Gerner

Ah, 'tis a world of hustle and bustle these days! Mini skirts, op art and bearded teen-agers . . . isn't it great to belong to a generation that can reminisce about fads and innovation?

Remember when the first prepared mixes were available in our stores, or even when you enjoyed that first Eskimo pie? Those were the days when physical dexterity was still more important than speed and convenience. Those also were the days when you could eat and eat, but never gain an ounce!

Somehow, time has a way of changing all things, even perhaps our eating habits. If you're a victim of "pick-up and make-do" meals, you'll be interested in some recent food and nutrition findings. Nutrition studies are playing an important role in menu planning these days. Numerous studies have shown time and time again that certain foods are necessary for all of us. Nutritionists have thought these foods so important that they set up a recommended guideline to help us plan balanced meals. These guidelines are called the basic four food groups . . . it's a good way to insure, healthful years.

Each day drink at least two glasses of milk, and some days add cheese or ice cream, or other foods made with milk. These foods are the very best source of calcium needed for upkeep of bones and for proper functioning of nerve and muscles. Each day eat at least two servings of lean meat, fish, poultry, eggs or cheese . . . alternate sometimes with dry beans, peas, nut or peanut butter. These foods are high in protein, many of them in iron, so important in keeping blood healthy.

Fruits and vegetables are important each day also. Eat at least four servings daily and be sure that at least one is a dark green or deep yellow vegetable, such as broccoli or carrots, and one is a citrus fruit, such as grapefruit or orange, or tomato in some form. The last of the four food groups is the breads and cereals group. Plan on four servings daily and, be sure that the bread or cereal is enriched, whole grain or restored.

If you follow a plan, it's not much of a puzzle to fit the recommended foods into pleasant meals that supply a balance of nourishment for the day. You are sure to include all that you need if you start with breakfast, and plan three good meals a day instead of one big and a couple of skimpy ones.

During Senior Citizen Month reminisce just a little. Are you eating the kind of meals nutritionists recommend? Are you planning three well-balanced meals a day around the four food groups? You should . . . good nutrition is important to all age groups!

Plan Public Health Nurses Workshops

Public health nurses are providing much of the home care today for persons with chronic illnesses due to disability resulting primarily from cardio-vascular diseases, cancer and accidents, a public health nursing professor at the University of Illinois said today.

"Community Nursing Practice in Chronic Illnesses will be one of the areas covered in Public Health Workshops, this summer thruout the state," said Jean Wood, assistant professor of nursing at the University of Illinois College of Nursing at the Medical Center Campus, Chicago.

The University, for the third year, will be the administrative sponsor of Public Health Workshops to be held in June and July in Chicago, Champaign, DeKalb, Carbondale, and Springfield. Other workshops include: Introduction to Community Nursing Service, Community Nursing Practice in Maternal and Child Health and Public Health Nursing Supervision.

To qualify you must be a Registered Nurse (R.N.), employed by a community health agency or anticipating such employment.

For further information and registration materials contact: Jean Wood, University of Illinois College of Nursing, Box 6998, Chicago 60680, or call (area code: 312) 663-3525.

hints for homeowners

By: Richard DeLano
Associate
Extension Adviser, Horticulture,
Cook County
University of Illinois

Now that summer is almost here, gardeners are asking us a number of questions. These questions during the past weeks have taken a pattern.

For example, we've had the question, "What is the best red petunia for planting in the Chicago area. On the basis of three trial gardens in Illinois, two of which are in the Chicago area, we can be quite specific in our recommendation. According to Gail Fosler of the Department of Ornamental Horticulture of the University of Illinois, four red varieties of petunia have shown themselves to be outstanding in the Chicago area. They are: Improved Comanche, Red Cap, Scarlet Satin, and Orange Bells.

Comanche has long been the standard red, but now we have an improved variety that blooms even more freely and has longer lasting blooms. Orange Bells is new this year, but on the basis of last year's trials we found it to be very free flowering and with a good non-fading color. Recovery was rapid after some of the severe stalk - breaking thunderstorms of the summer. The color name is somewhat misleading as it has a shade that is a salmon red with an attractive yellow throat.

Other questions of the week involve maples. Many people have been noticing small red warts, pimples or swellings on the upper surface of the leaves. The warts, or galls as they are more accurately described, may first appear green and then change to the brilliant conspicuous crimson. Fortunately, even when the leaves are very liberally dotted with the galls, they do absolutely no harm to the tree. The condition is caused by a tiny harmless mite that lives over winter on the bark of the tree. Then as the leaves unfold in the spring, the mite travels to the leaves and here stings them for egg laying purposes. The result is the crimson gall.

Spraying now, after the galls are present, is of no value. However, if you insist on controlling the condition, spray in spring after the buds are swollen, but before new leaves appear in spring.

The other problem of maples involves tattered, torn and ragged leaves. Sometimes the holes are almost perfectly round. Other symptoms are cupping and rippling of the surface with a singed appearance to the edges.

The overall appearance looks disastrous. The instinctive action of most homeowners to such a situation is to rush to the garden center for a spray to control the mysterious problem. Again, no spraying is necessary. The cause of this problem is frost. In spring, as the leaves were unfolding, the night frosts killed the exposed leaf tissue. Then as the unharmed interior tissue continues to expand, it causes a ripping and tearing of the leaf. The result is a good facsimile of worm or disease injury. If the problem is caused by a worm, close inspection will turn up the culprit. Only then should a spray with an insecticide such as sevin be used.

Center Announces Summer Art Classes

The summer session of art classes to be offered by the Community Center Foundation, Southwest Highway at 127th Street, Palos Park, will begin on Tuesday, June 18, with a landscape painting class, 10:00 to 3:00. (Members of the class are asked to bring their own sack luncheon.) The grounds of the Foundation offer beauty and variety of subject matter which can be painted in any media.

Mrs. Marvin Kutchinski, Palos Heights, who will teach the landscape class will also have a class for teenagers beginning Friday, June 21, from 10:00 to 12:00.

The evening painting class will meet on Thursday from 7:30 to 9:30 with the first class being held on June 20. When weather and daylight permit, the class will work out of doors; otherwise, members of the class will work from sketches they have made previously. Any media may be used.

X-Ray Unit Visits Orland June 12-13

One of the sure signs of summer -- a big white and blue mobile X-ray unit from the Suburban Cook County Tuberculosis Sanitarium District will be in Orland Park on Wednesday and Thursday, June 12 and 13.

Its appearance here is a part of the free X-ray service provided by the district each summer throughout suburban Cook County. The District, which is tax supported, conducts the survey with the cooperation and assistance of The Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County (the Christmas Seal agency), the Cook County Health Department and local health departments.

"All Orland Park adults should take advantage of the good weather and get out to the mobile X-ray units while it is here for their X-ray," said Dr. E. A. Piszczek, field director of The District. "A negative X-ray finding will be a sign of good health for them. But, even if TB is found, modern drugs can bring it under control quickly and prevent it from spreading to others."

In Orland Park the mobile X-ray unit will be located at the shopping plaza at 143rd and LaGrange Rd. It will be in operation on Wednesday, June 12, from 10:30 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. and on Thursday, June 13, from 1 - 8 p.m.

JIM RAINES, a resident of Orland Park for the past 12 years is now associated with Bob Miller Mercury, Orland Park, in the capacity of sales manager of the new and used car dept., and was one of the top 15% of salesmen for Lincoln-Mercury.
